

Something can be done about it

The more people we warn, the fewer lives can be ruined, the fewer families can be broken up.

The more lobbying we do with politicians, the harder it will be for Scientology organisations to claim legitimacy and avoid paying taxes.

Together we can bring down this “global racket” and return its victims to their families.

By informing yourself and others you can play your part.

What $cientology DOESN'T want you to read

"I'd like to start a religion. That's where the money is."

- L. Ron Hubbard, founder of the Church of Scientology, to Lloyd Eshbach in 1949; quoted by Eshbach in "Over My Shoulder" Photo by the Sunday Times “Scientology is both immoral and socially obnoxious.... In my judgement it is corrupt, sinister and dangerous.

“It is corrupt because it is based on lies and deceit and has as its real objective money and power for Mr. Hubbard, his wife and those close to him at the top.

“It is sinister because it indulges in infamous practices both to its adherents who do not toe the line unquestioningly, and to those who criticise or oppose it.

“It is dangerous because it is out to capture people, especially children and impressionable young people, and indoctrinate and brainwash them so that they become the unquestioning captives and tools of the cult, withdrawn from ordinary thought, living and relationships with others.

“Discipline is ruthless and obedience has to be unquestioning.”

- Justice Latey, the High Court

“The Church of Scientology, started by science-fiction writer L. Ron Hubbard to "clear" people of unhappiness, portrays itself as a religion. In reality the church is a hugely profitable global racket that survives by intimidating members and critics in a Mafia-like manner.

“Many of the group's followers have been accused of committing financial scams, while the church is busy attracting the unwary through a wide array of front groups in such businesses as publishing, consulting, health care and even remedial education.

“Those who criticize the church – journalists, doctors, lawyers and even judges – often find themselves engulfed in litigation, stalked by private eyes, framed for fictional crimes, beaten up or threatened with death.”

- TIME Magazine, “The Thriving Cult of Greed and Power”

Breaking up families and friendships

“Disconnection is a practice in Scientology, in which a Scientologist severs all ties between themselves and friends, colleagues, or family members that are deemed to be antagonistic towards Scientology.”

- Wikipedia.org article on Disconnection

“Dear Mother, I am hereby disconnecting from you because you are suppressive to me. [...] I from this time consider myself disconnected from you and I do not want to see you or hear from you again. From now you don't exist in my life.”

- Letter from scientologist Karen Henslow to her mother

Mandatory abortions

“Approximately 1½ years before I left, a new rule came out stating that if you got pregnant, you had to either get an abortion, which was heavily pushed, or leave.

“I personally knew of three other girls who got pregnant and were convinced to get abortions. One was my sister-in-law who was 16 weeks pregnant when she was convinced to abort her child although she was strongly against it.”

The ultimate goal?

“Hubbard literally had a plan for world conquest. He actually literally wanted to take over the world, but he had to put it in other terms. The term he came up with was 'clear the planet.' This sounds like a very beneficent action but really it was more of a case like a Hitler: he wants to rid the planet of vermin. The vermin are the people who are stopping him and these were basically the enemies of Scientology.”

- Robert Vaughn Young, Hubbard’s former head of public relations, speaking on ITV’s “The Big Story”.
