Google “Disconnection” to find more about the “Church” of Scientology’s infamous policy.

It’s not just what they do to their own members. According to TIME Magazine, “Those who criticize the church – journalists, doctors, lawyers and even judges – often find themselves engulfed in litigation, stalked by private eyes, framed for fictional crimes, beaten up or threatened with death.”

Scientology Destroys Families

A statement from Jenna Miscavige Hill, niece of the leader of the Church of Scientology

“I have been involved in the Church of Scientology since birth. David Miscavige is my father's brother, making him my uncle.

“My parents officially left the Church when I was 16 in 2000. I, having been separated from them at the age of 12 and thoroughly engulfed in the beliefs of the Church since birth decided not to go with them.

“Not only was I not allowed to speak to them, I was not allowed to answer a phone for well over a year, in case it was them calling me.

“Tracye Danilovoch- the local representative for the Religious Technology Center - intercepted all letters from my parents (and my friends). She would then pass them on to Marc Rathbun (the then 2nd in command of the Church) and Mike Rinder.

“Only after they had seen the letters and decided it was ok for me to see them would I receive some of them while sitting in a board room while they watched me read them and asked me to comment on them.

“I was allowed to visit my parents from the age of 16-22, once a year for a maximum of 3-4 days, but that was only after they (my parents) threatened legal action if the Church got in the way of this.

“Even then I had to undergo a "Security Check Confessional" before I saw them and immediately after I came back. A security check is interrogation (usually about if I intend on leaving the Church, or finding out if my parents have said anything bad about the Church, etc.) while being attached to an E-meter which is similar to a lie detector. This happened every single time I saw them.

“For a more recent example of families being destroyed, My Aunt Jennifer Pantermeuhl has recently contacted my parents and let them know that she can no longer speak to them or be in contact with them because they speak to and live near my other Aunt Sarah Mortland.

“Sarah is my mom's and Jennifer's sister. This is because Sarah is not in favor with the Church. Jennifer also contacted my brother Sterling as well as the rest of the family for the same reason most of whom had to lie to her and said they weren't talking to Sarah for fear of getting found out about.

“Another good example would be when my other brother, Justin, was in Florida a few years ago and was on his way to visit our Aunt Denise Gentile (our father's sister and David Miscavige's twin) with his girlfriend. Denise abruptly cancelled while they were on their way over because the Church would not approve - because he was an ex-member.

“Not to mention the fact that Kirsten Caetano (a member of the Church's Office of Special Affairs) was contacting Justin several times when he was in Florida working, telling him that he needed to leave the state because he is an ex-member and his presence at the "mecca of scientology" was disturbing to the church.

“Kirsten has admitted to my face that she did this when I confronted her and even went so far as to admit that she lied to my brother after denying the incident. This is the least of what Kirsten Caetano has done!

“I can name at least 5 friends off the top of my head whose family members are not allowed to speak to them without being themselves ousted from the Church and prevented from communicating with other members of their family and even their children still involved in the Church lest THEY too be ousted!

“They can't speak to their children because they have left the Church on their own determinism. This is a widespread practice: I have a list of all of their names together. These people's families are crying every day because they can't speak to their children who did nothing but leave the Church of their own free will.

“If I am in fact wrong and you want to prove me as such, then allow me and my family to be in contact with our family members that are still part of the Church such as my Grandpa, Ron Miscavige, and his wife, Becky. Allow the same of my friends. And don't even start with the, “it's their choice all along” story. Nobody is going to buy that. There are way too many destroyed families for that to be true.

“Why don't you take the high road for once and repair the families you have destroyed, starting with the family of David Miscavige himself. Hell, if Scientology can't keep his family together, then why on earth should anyone believe the Church helps bring families together?”
